St Augustine's School

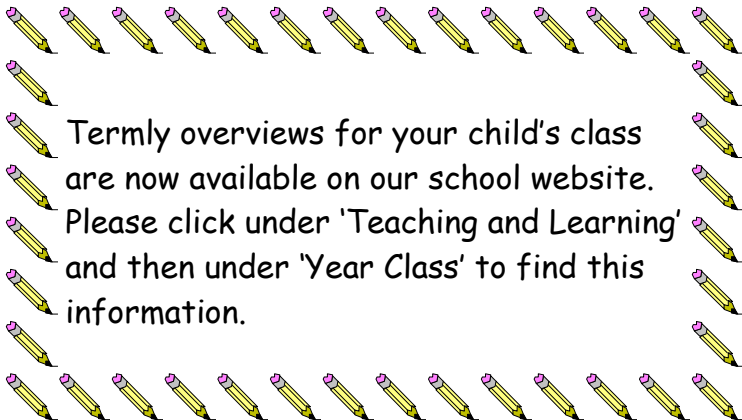

6th January 2017

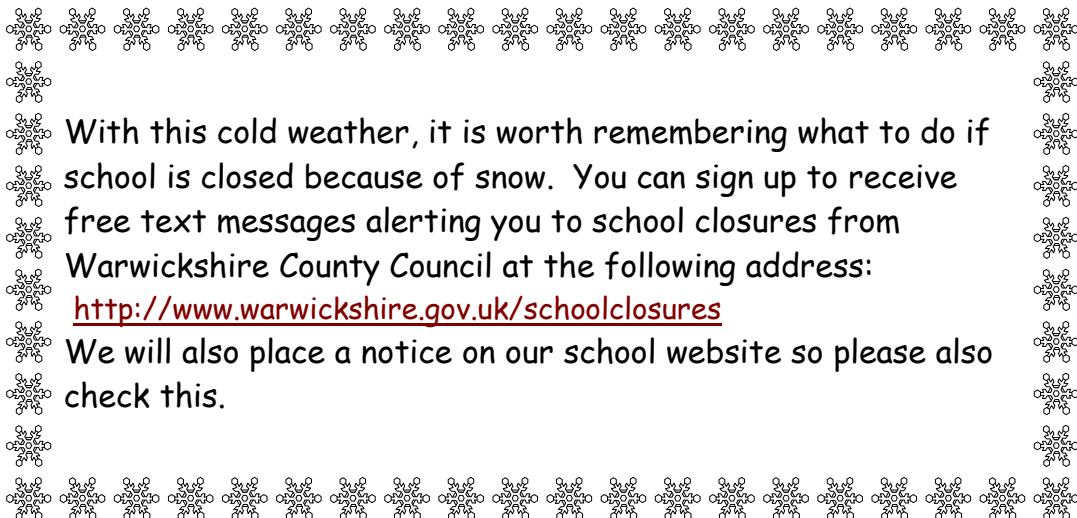

This week ...

Happy New Year and welcome back to school after the Christmas holidays.

Just a short newsletter this week ...

Termly overviews for your child's class are now available on our school website. Please click under 'Teaching and Learning' and then under 'Year Class' to find this information.

With this cold weather, it is worth remembering what to do if school is closed because of snow. You can sign up to receive free text messages alerting you to school closures from Warwickshire County Council at the following address:
<http://www.warwickshire.gov.uk/schoolclosures>
We will also place a notice on our school website so please also check this.

Catholic Life

Mass - We celebrated a lovely Mass for the Epiphany in school this week. Next week, there will be a class Mass for Year 6.

Online Safety

You may have seen in the News this week a report from the Children's Commissioner explaining how children are not understanding what they are signing up for on the internet. You can read the BBC article here:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/education-38508888>

At school, we have Online Safety lessons and continually talk to the children about not giving away personal information. However, it is important to also have these discussions at home and reinforce the message of staying safe online.

Next Week

- Monday Y1 Time Detectives for the day
- Tuesday Y5 Butterfly Farm
- Wednesday Alton Castle at 6:30pm for Y5 parents
- Thursday Celebration Assembly
- Friday Y6 class Mass
Y5 dodgeball group

Have a lovely weekend,
Lesley Ritchie
